Why should I attend?

There is so much to learn in life, no matter our ages or our locations. Mission u tackles geographical issues, social justice concerns, and spiritual development with up-to-date information presented in new books, with carefully trained teachers, in caring communities. Come and join in the rich discussions and worship. You will find new ideas, new friends, and more ways to be a good neighbor – whether it's in your church, your community, or around the world!

"I try to never miss this opportunity to learn about God's Mission in the world and to strengthen my own spirituality."

- Rev. Joe Agne, Cedaredge Community UMC, Colorado
